Strategies for coping with added stress

- Consider limiting your screen time
- Engage in activities that nourish you: podcasts, listen to music, journal, reading, spending time in nature, etc.
- Take care of yourself: Prioritize sleep, eat nutritious food, move your body
- Reach out to your emotional support team (family, friends, mentors, coaches, healthcare professional, etc.)
- Attend campus support events this week.

Discussion

Structures

1. What is the purpose of a structure variable? What are its' key features?
2. How do we access a member within a structure?
3. Why might we use an array of structures?
